National Health Reform public hospital funding – Local hospital network report

Central Coast Local Health District, October 2012

This report is issued by the Administrator of the National Health Funding Pool under section 240 of the National Health Reform Act 2011.

This report shows the National Health Reform (NHR) payments made by the Commonwealth and New South Wales to the Central Coast Local Health District for October 2012 as part of the National Health Reform Agreement.

The Central Coast Local Health District is the local hospital network covering the Central Coast region of NSW. See Central Coast Local Health District public hospitals and service providers.

Local hospital networks and National Health Reform

A local hospital network (LHN) is an organisation that provides public hospital services in accordance with the National Health Reform Agreement (the Agreement). A local hospital network can contain one or more hospitals, and is usually defined as a business group, geographical area or community. Every Australian public hospital is part of a local hospital network.

Note: The term 'local hospital network' is a national term. Some states and territories use their own local terminology to describe these networks, such as local health districts, health organisations, and hospital and health services.

Under the Agreement, local hospital networks receive NHR funding for the following public hospital services:

- All admitted and non-admitted services
- All emergency department services provided by a recognised emergency department
- Other outpatient, mental health, sub-acute services and other services that could reasonably be considered a public hospital service.

Note: Local hospital networks also receive funding from other sources, including the Commonwealth, states and territories, and third parties for the provision of other specific functions and services outside the scope of the Agreement, for example, dental services, primary care, home and community care, residential aged care and pharmaceuticals. For further information on total funding to a particular local hospital network, contact the Department of Health in the relevant state or territory to view the service agreement for that local hospital network.

Reference information

The data in this report can be viewed in conjunction with information shown on the MyHospitals website (www.myhospitals.gov.au) which provides information on hospitals throughout Australia.

The financial information outlined in the following report represents NHR payments. NHR payments are when NHR funding is deposited into a state pool account or state managed fund and is paid out of the state pool account by the Administrator, or is paid out of state managed fund by the state or territory.

For the basis of NHR payments, see the Basis for National Health Reform payments explanation in the New South Wales report for October 2012, see New South Wales report, October 2012.

For the basis of the Commonwealth contribution to NHR funding, see Basis of Commonwealth funding 2012-13.

Total NHR payments	172,138,318	0

Total ABF payments (Pool) represents NHR payments made by the Administrator from the state pool account to the local hospital network (LHN).

Total Block payments (SMF) represents NHR payments made by the state or territory from the state managed fund (SMF) to the local hospital network.

Note: The grey shaded areas in the table above reflect that block payments made to local hospital networks cannot at this stage be identified by source of funding (state, territory or Commonwealth) when paid from state managed funds.

Payments in these tables are GST exclusive. The majority of government funding to local hospital networks is not subject to GST. However in some cases, hospital funding to non-government entities does attract GST, for example, denominational hospitals, privately and commercially owned health facilities, or any other non-government third party provider of health services or related supplies.

For the basis of NHR payments, see the Basis for National Health Reform payments explanation in the New South Wales report for October 2012, see New South Wales report, October 2012.

Table 2 – Estimated monthly, YTD and annual NWAU for the Central Coast Local Health District, October 2012

This table shows the estimated activity for activity based funding services expressed as National Weighted Activity Units (NWAU) for October 2012, the associated cumulative year-to-date (YTD) NWAU, and the total estimated annual NWAU for the Central Coast Local Health District.

NHR funding amounts and service volumes are provided by states and territories as service estimates at the start of each financial year, and may continue to be refined during the course of the year. These estimates form the basis of monthly reporting of service volumes until actual service numbers become available.

The estimated annual NWAU for the Central Coast Local Health District was provided to the Administrator as a basis for determining Commonwealth NHR activity based funding. Current month NWAU estimates accumulate through the year-to-date (YTD) NWAU to equal the annual NWAU at the end of the financial year.

Activity based funding (ABF) service category	Estimated NWAU delivered in current month	Estimated NWAU delivered YTD	Estimated annual NWAU 2012-13
Acute admitted - public	4,875	17,549	50,697
Acute admitted - private	533	1,920	5,546
Non-admitted	1,565	5,635	16,280
Emergency department	1,173	4,224	12,202
Total	8,147	29,328	84,725

An NWAU is a measure of health service activity expressed as a common unit. It provides a way of comparing and valuing each public hospital service, whether they are admissions, emergency department presentations or outpatient episodes, by weighting them for their clinical complexity. The average hospital service is worth one NWAU – the most intensive and expensive activities are worth multiple NWAU, the simplest and least expensive are worth fractions of an NWAU.

Monthly NHR payments relate to the cash needs of public hospitals and do not necessarily reflect the volume of services to be delivered in the month.

For more information on the NWAU explanation and basis, see National Health Reform Reporting.

For the basis of NHR payments, see the Basis for National Health Reform payments explanation in the New South Wales report for October 2012, see New South Wales report, October 2012.
